MDL No. 2843
Case No. 18-md-02843-VC-JSC

This document relates to:

ALL ACTIONS

STIPULATION AND ~~[PROPOSED]~~
ORDER ON DISCOVERY DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURES

Resolution of discovery disputes in this MDL has been referred to the undersigned magistrate judge. As to discovery disputes that may arise, except as otherwise set forth herein, the parties shall comply with page 4 of the Civil Standing Order for Magistrate Judge Jacqueline Scott Corley. In addition, and in the interest of ensuring the prompt and equitable resolution of discovery disputes, the parties agree, subject to Court approval, to the following procedures:

1. A discovery dispute is defined as a refusal to fully produce requested discovery or an inability to agree on the parameters of the discovery sought or ordered. Unless both parties otherwise agree, the meet and confer process concerning a discovery dispute shall begin within four business days of a party seeking discovery or requesting relief (the “moving party”) making a request for the meet and confer conference.

2. A request to meet and confer shall identify each issue and/or discovery request in dispute. The request shall state briefly the moving party’s position on the issue, may provide any legal authority the moving party believes is dispositive of the issue, and identify the relief to be sought.

3. If the parties remain at impasse after meeting and conferring in good faith, the moving party may, no earlier than three business days after the parties have concluded the meet and confer process, file a two page statement as contemplated by this Court’s Standing Order. See CIVIL STANDING ORDER OF MAGISTRATE JUDGE, JACQUELINE SCOTT CORLEY, Revised March 7, 2019, at 4-5. The opposing party shall then have three business days to file its written response of no more than two pages.

4. If the opposing party fails to participate in the requested meet and confer in good faith within the four-business day time period specified in paragraph 1 above, the party seeking discovery may submit an individual statement to the Court including an explanation of why a meet and confer was not possible, or otherwise seek the Court’s assistance.

5. The parties are invited, but not required, to contact the Court’s Deputy Clerk Ada Means to schedule an informal discovery conference with the Court after the parties have met and conferred but before the drafting of their discovery briefs. At the conference the Court will not formally rule, but instead will attempt to assist the parties with resolving their dispute without the need for written submissions. The parties may agree to stay the deadlines for submission of the discovery letter pending the informal discovery conference, but absent an agreement the deadlines set forth in paragraph 4 above remain in place.

IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.
